CSH Driving Tour Rolls Out

The Central State Hospital Self-Guided Driving Tour officially launched on Sunday, September 8th. David Wells, a past President and Board member of Georgia’s Old Capital Heritage Center at The Depot, developed the tour and brochure with QR codes that provide information on 10 stops around the former CSH campus. The brochure or a CD is available free of charge at the Milledgeville Convention, Visitor’s Bureau downtown, and at The Just Imagine Cottage adjacent to the old CSH Depot at 752 Broad Street. Special thanks to Caroline Collier at Georgia College for technical design, Madeleine Strickland for artistic design, and those who contributed content: Henry Craig, Susan Craig, Dr. John Gates, Carolyn Pruitt, and Dr. Bob Wilson. This project was made possible by a generous grant from the Georgia Humanities Council.

Butch Goff

Thanks to all who participated in the Kayak Raffle!

We love our GC Gives Day Volunteers!

Thirty-five Georgia College freshmen students worked at The Just Imagine Cottage cleaning up the parking lot, bagging yard trash, and cleaning out the basement. Thanks to the students, their faculty advisors, and the GOCHC Board member volunteers for making a difference.

Eight freshmen students vacuumed, dusted, swept, mopped, and washed windows at the Brown-Stetson-Sanford House. Thanks to those students, their advisor, and the Board member volunteers for making the interior of the BSSH glow.

The Tams Re-Visited

The Tams and the 14 Karat Band kept the dance floor hoppin’ when they returned to Milledgeville on August 10th. It was an evening filled with the hits of the ‘60s, ‘70s, and 80’s; good food from the ladies of Octagon Café; a “Battle of the Bags” raffle (Michael Kors won by one vote over Coach); silent auction items that included a stay in a Tuscan Villa; Live Auction items that included an Antigua vacation; a Quail Hunt; Clay Shooting for 2; and a Couples Getaway at Serenity Spa. To top the evening, the third generation of Tams, Maki Cottle and Jordan Richardson, the 12-year old grandsons of original Tams members Red and Elton, performed with the Tams, the 14 Karat Band, and stole the show!

Thanks to the volunteers, Annual Patrons, and local businesses who made the evening possible and thanks to our guests for their support of Georgia’s Old Capital Heritage Center at The Depot!
