We look forward to your joining us in 2020, as we continue to showcase Education, History, Arts, Culture, Historic Preservation, and fun in Milledgeville!

Happy New Year! Best wishes for a healthy, happy, and prosperous 2020.

“Evenings with History” Returns January 21st:
“The Underground Railroad Quilt: Map to The Promised Land”

During the Civil War, quilts were made with encoded symbols to provide information and maps for those seeking to escape slavery by means of the Underground Railroad. Join us Tuesday, January 21st, 7 PM, at the Brown-Stetson-Sanford House when master quilter Cookie Noel talks about the exquisite Underground Railroad quilt she made and donated to GOCHC.

Free and Open to the Public

Georgia Gives and the “Ramp It Up” Project Update

Special thanks to the fifty-one Georgia Gives and End-of-the-Year supporters who contributed $41,361 of the $48,820 to build three entrance ramps at The Depot. Donations to help fully fund the project are welcomed.
