“RAMP IT UP” FOR GEORGIA GIVES DAY

December 3, 2019

Georgia Gives on Giving Tuesday starts on November 1st and culminates with a 24-hour bonanza of giving on Tuesday, December 3rd. This year, Georgia’s Old Capital Heritage Center at The Depot is raising funds for the “Ramp It Up Project”, the building of two Americans with Disabilities Act-approved ramped entrances at the front of The Depot. The existing ramp requires entrance from the street and is not wide enough to accommodate modern motorized wheelchairs. The new ramps will be accessible from the parking lot and will provide access to the central entrance into the Lobby/Native American Galley and to the east door into the office suite and exhibits.

Architectural plans for the “Ramp It Up Project” will be on display at the unveiling of the Depot Donut at Krispy Kreme on November 5th, during “Cookies at the Cottage” on November 12th, during “Evenings with History” on November 19th, at “Dine for The Depot” on December 3rd, and at The Cottage on Georgia Gives Day on December 3rd. With your support, we will make this 2019 Georgia Gives Day our best yet!

Guests at the October 4th Murder Mystery Dinner Event are already asking, “When can we do it again?” The actors from the Atlanta Murder Mystery Company were terrific. Participants chosen from the audience really “hammed” it up, and the dinner guests were deadly serious about solving the murder. Pickle Barrel prepared a sumptuous buffet dinner, and the too tempting desserts and the beautiful centerpieces of fresh-cut roses (created by our own Stephen Stewart) on the white table cloths set the stage for a great wedding dinner. It was truly a killer event! Be sure to visit our Facebook page @Oldcapitalmuseum to see more pictures.

Georgia’s Old Capital Heritage Center at The Depot, Inc., was the designated recipient in the August “Quotes for Good” sponsored by Merritt Massey and State Farm Insurance. Thank you, Merritt, Sean, and State Farm for your support!
