The 1st Annual Lake Sinclair Poker Run is coming June 8th

Bring your boat, the wife and kids, friends, and the dog because the 1st Annual Lake Sinclair Poker Run will be too much fun to miss! What is a Poker Run? Well, it is like a giant scavenger hunt that includes a fun day on Lake Sinclair picking up playing cards at various sites, enjoying lunch at the Grill at Crooked Creek Marina, and if you play your cards right, a $1000 prize. PLUS you will support Georgia's Old Capital Museum Society, Inc., and The Destination: Depot Project, the renovation of the CSH train depot for a Regional Cultural Center.

May is Historic Preservation Month

June, 1966

April, 2019

In June of 1966, the Old Capital Historical Society saved the historic 1825 Brown-Stetson-Sanford House by relocating it to the corner of Hancock and Jackson Streets. In 2003, the OCHS merged with Georgia's Old Capital Museum Society and the house was transformed into a House Museum and Educational Center.

Today the Museum Society provides educational tours for all ages, hosts civic and social groups, welcomes the CVB Trolley Tours, and offers this unique venue for parties, dinners, and Society fundraisers. These activities and generous grants provide the necessary funds for the tender care this 194 year-old house requires.

Join us and our community partners as we advocate, educate, and celebrate historic preservation throughout Milledgeville. A donation to support the Museum Society's Historic Preservation efforts to preserve the historic 1825 Brown-Stetson-Sanford House will go a long way.

The Archaeologists are back!

Artifact Identification Day is Saturday, July 13 th . Bring your “found” objects—arrowheads, spear points, pottery shards, tools, geological specimens, and other interesting objects to The Just Imagine Cottage at 95 Depot Circle Drive. Archeologists from the Middle Georgia Archeology Club will be on hand to identify and talk with you about your “treasures”. It is free and great family fun. Call the Museum Office, 478-453-1803, for more information.
